

Please do not interfere with New Jersey's current "do not call list" policy. Making it less stringent in order to follow national standards will allow our personal-home businesses and personal lines to be penetrable to scores of unsolicited and annoying "cold calls".

Thank you.